John Salminen's "The Rhythms of the City"

Exhibition dates: September 25 – October 25, 2014

Reception: 5:30 – 7:30 p.m. Thursday, September 25, 2014. Free to the public.

September 3, 2014 - Stremmel Gallery presents Roger Berry's "Sculpture," and John Salminen's "The Rhythms of the City," an exhibition featuring new works, opening on September 25 and continuing through October 25, 2014. Berry's large, rhythmic, knotted bands of steel and silicon bronze, contrast with and complement Salminen's layered transparent watercolors of street scenes from great cities around the world. The opening reception will be from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., Thursday, September 25, 2014, and is free to the public.

Roger Berry, a prominent and highly respected Northern California sculptor, has been commissioned to make over 30 site-specific sculptural works for municipalities and corporations from the West Coast to the United Kingdom. In Reno, Berry's work can be seen at Shopper's Square and Renown Medical Center. During the 1980s, he created a series of large, outdoor steel sculptures that solidified his position among the Bay Area art community's elite. Berry earned his bachelor's degree from the University of the Pacific in Stockton, California.

John Salminen is a signature member of numerous art associations, including the American Watercolor Society, the National Watercolor Society, the Watercolor USA Honor Society, the Transparent Watercolor Society of America, and Allied Artists of America. He has won more than 230 major awards in national and international exhibitions, including the American Watercolor Society Gold Medal twice. Salminen earned his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis. He has been featured in over 75 magazines and 25 books worldwide.
